

We Declare Peace

Composed: Utako Toyama and Scott Kohlmann

Lyrics: Utako Toyama and Noriko Umeda

Somebody said, "Pain of our lives brings war.
Sometimes living is more painful than dying"

Why does this happen? (I don't know)

Why does this happen? (so what can I do?)

A girl is holding flowers
She brings the sun to the cold faces of her mom and dad
She looks around and wonders

Why did that happen? (I don't know)

Why did that happen? (so what can I do?)

We declare Peace, we declare peace.... (I know we should)
we declare peace, we declare peace....

Somebody said
"To save a life of someone who I love,
I must take a life of someone who you love."

Why does that happen? (I don't know)

Why does that happen? (so what can I do?)

The tears of the girl,
don't affect the tyrant chasers
Her words are trashed under their gold

Why did that happen? (I don't know)

Why do we care?

Because I know we have the same smiles on our different faces

We declare Peace, we declare peace..

Oh oh oh oh...
